Special guest speaker Susan Stephenson

Susan Stephenson is the Executive Director of The Regeneration Project and California Interfaith Power and Light. Susan has over two decades of experience developing and implementing issue-advocacy and electoral campaigns for environmental and other public interest organizations.

Prior to joining The Regeneration Project, she served as vice president of the Oakland-based campaign consulting firm The Next Generation. Beginning in 1999, she organized and coordinated the California Global Warming Campaign, which implemented a proactive strategy resulting in several landmark legislative victories. She has been involved with California Interfaith Power and Light since its inception in 2000. Susan received a B.A. in English Literature from the University of North Carolina.

Workshops: In addition to gathering in celebration of the year, all attendees will be able to attend two workshops related to responding to an earth in climate crisis.

- UMW and Environmental Justice, with Susan Stephenson, The Regeneration Project and California Interfaith Power and Light, and Betty Spencer Dickey, Western Jurisdiction Guide with National UMW Environmental Justice Department.
- Earthquake and Emergency Preparedness, with leaders to be announced.

UMW in Mission: You are invited to bring a table-top display of how you (as United Methodist Women) are engaged in mission. Do you have a prayer shawl ministry? Put together emergency kits for UMCOR? Provide special items to women in a homeless shelter? Bring a display with photos or examples of your ministry, to share your story with others.
